

FREE TO ATTEND

Social Pedagogy Information Day

You may have heard about social pedagogy in recent years.
If you're wondering what it's all about, we're offering an Information Day.

Quench Salisbury, Unit 1 Sussex House,
Newton Road, Salisbury, SP2 7QA

28th November 2017
From 10.00 – 4.00pm (Lunch provided)

IMPACT OF SOCIAL PEDAGOGY "... SHINING IN EVERY DIRECTION ..."

Outcomes include enhanced workforce performance, improved relationships and practice.

- Skills in relationship-building
- Increased confidence
- More reflective
- More able to manage conflict
- Improved communication
- Favourable conditions for placement stability
- Increased educational attendance and attainment

The event promises to be informative and fun,
providing an overview of social pedagogy developments in the UK.

WHO IS THE DAY FOR?

This event is for practitioners and leaders alike, in any sectors working with vulnerable people.

Whether you work...

- with looked after children
- with children in need and family support
- in adoption
- as a principal social worker
- in learning and development
- with youth services

...this event has something to offer.

WHAT IS ON OFFER?

You will gain an overview of social pedagogy as a relational discipline which nurtures potential.

- See the contribution social pedagogy has in addressing current challenges
- An overview of the evidence-base for social pedagogy
- A certificate of attendance and a free pocket book (retails at £6.99)
- A chance to network

Register your interest with Abby and Verónica at abby@jacaranda-development.co.uk
We will send you advance information/video links.

Abby Ladbrooke
Co-founder, Jacaranda

Verónica Pérez
Associate, Jacaranda

Places are limited, so if you're no longer able to attend, please let us know so someone on the wait-list can attend.
Thank you!